Details Customer Reviews

Philips AVENT Durable BPA-Free Bottle are clinically proven to reduce colic* and to help settle your baby, especially at night

- BPA free
- The naturally shaped teat promotes proper latch-on and makes it easier to combine breast and bottle feeding

*At 2 weeks of age babies fed with an AVENT Bottle showed less fussing compared to babies fed with another leading bottle.  At 2 weeks of age babies fed with an AVENT Bottle showed less colic compared to babies fed with a conventional bottle.
